

Most people think the media are bought up, bought out, or bought off. No point in having them believe otherwise. For those still gullible enough to believe we have a free press, the thing to do is concentrate power even further. What's happening is crime!! Do something about it.